Messrs. Bush, Reams, Leggett and Moody of Greenville, were in town a few hours Monday on business.

Good bye candidates. Two more years and then you can come again—and the people are glad of the respite.

Don't get hot in the collar, even if you did fail to win out. It is impossible for all candidates to be elected.

Messrs. R. C. Dunn and C. H. Dickinson were in town this week from Tallahassee. They came home to vote.

Mrs. Stephen Crockett and baby had an enjoyable visit among friends in Bellville the latter part of the last week.

Mrs. Claud L. Morrow and sister, Miss Willie Hinely, expect to leave tomorrow for a visit to Hampton Springs.

Little Miss Mary Burton left yesterday for Tallahassee where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. S. E. Cobb, for a few days.

Miss Lala Beasley attended the commencement exercises of Jefferson College Institute at Monticello last week.

S. E. Cobb came down from Tallahassee Monday afternoon to vote on Tuesday. He returned to Tallahassee yesterday.

W. H. Goodbread came up from Live Oak Monday and remained over Tuesday to put in his ballot for his candidate friends.

Col. Randall H. Rowe had business in Greenville Monday and spent the intervening hours between trains in that lively village.

John B. Cowart and several other prominent citizens of Pinetta had business in town Monday, and were here attending to it.

W. B. Markham and Walter Allen arrived last week from Durham, N. C., and will play ball with the Madison team this season.

For Sale or Rent.

Two of my Large Stores in the Pope Block.

Miss Florida Phillips came over from Valdosta Tuesday, and will remain in our city a week or so visiting among relatives and friends.

Miss Nettie Stoy arrived from Jacksonville Saturday night and will remain in our city about two weeks, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. E. Davis.

J. E. Harlee spent Sunday in Tallahassee. We warn our young ladies that the visits of this gentleman to the capital city are becoming alarmingly frequent.

Mrs. B. F. Moseley received the sad tidings Monday of the death of her brother, Milledge B. Lipscombe, which occurred at his home in Ninety Six, S. C., on Sunday.

After one week of unprofitable business the flying jenny pulled down its tent, unharnessed its horses, packed up its chariots and departed for greener fields Tuesday morning.

The habeas corpus hearing before Judge Vann, court commissioner, in the case of the State vs. Frank Blair last week was again argued before Judge Palmer at Lake City last Friday. In this proceeding application was made for bail. At this writing we have not heard the result of the hearing before Judge Palmer.

SEWING MACHINES—Five kinds at six different prices, from $15.00 to $35.00 for cash. Sold on time to responsible buyers at a slight advance in price. W. H. Dial, Jr. 1-21-11.

Col. Chas. E. Davis went down to Lake City last Thursday night and tackled the festive goat of the order of Elks. Mr. Davis says he found some difficulty in hanging on to the goat while that animal was in motion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Taylor left Tuesday afternoon, the gentleman for Jacksonville where he goes to serve on the jury in the United States court. Mrs. Taylor has gone to Baltimore where she will visit her parents for several weeks.

Miss Moore, one of the popular teachers during the last term of our High school, left Monday morning for her home in Alabama. Miss Moore made many friends among our people who hope for her return when the next school term begins.

J. Lem Dowling, Esq., returned Sunday from a very pleasant visit of several days with friends in Georgia. The young gentleman is receiving the congratulations of his friends upon his approaching marriage with one of Georgia's fairest daughters on 29th inst.

All art lovers are missing a charming opportunity who have neglected to enroll themselves in the art class of Miss Blanche Smith who is the guest of Mrs. A. E. Fraleigh. Miss Smith is a graduate of Wesleyan college and is a charming exponent of this college dear to all Southern hearts.

Rev. T. C. Bradford filled up the day pretty well last Sunday. He attended Sunday school at 9:30, preached at 11 o'clock, then traveled twenty-two miles, married a couple at 3 p. m., returned and made a speech in the Epworth League at 4 o'clock and then preached again at night.

Miss Turner will leave for her home in Alabama to-morrow. Miss Turner has been engaged as one of the teachers in the High school during the past term, and she has greatly endeared herself to her little pupils by her kind and gentle ways, and to the patrons who appreciate her thorough modern methods of teaching.

A most noticeable feature of the work done by our school during the past year is the revival of interest in music. The children have been deeply interested and thoroughly responsive to the faithful efforts of their directress, Miss Moore, as was proven by the sweet songs rendered in almost perfect harmony and time, enjoyed by all who attended commencement.

At the home of the bride in Greenville on Sunday afternoon last, Rev. T. C. Bradford officiating, Miss Berta J. Moody and Mr. Vann F. Young were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for their future home at Little River where Mr. Young is a prosperous truck grower. The New Enterprise extends congratulations and best wishes.

The "stag parties" which became so popular last summer, have again been inaugurated, the first one being held at K of P. hall last Thursday night. The popular game of Whist was indulged in, and the first prize was won by John Tollie Vann while the booby was captured by the editor of this paper who, as a Whist player, is not a success. The refreshments were elegant and plentiful, and consisted of ice cream and cake, ambrosia, lemonade and fruit punch. Let us hope that the affair will be repeated in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Hardee have issued cards of invitation to the wedding of their daughter, Claire, and Mr. Frank Smith Parramore, of New York. The wedding will be solemnized at the First Baptist church in this city on next Wednesday, June 15th, at 3:00 o'clock, p. m. Immediately after the ceremony the wedded pair will board the Seaboard train for Jacksonville from whence they will sail for New York. Miss Claire is one of Madison's most gracious and charming young ladies, and her friends are legion. The fortunate and happy bridegroom is well known to our people, and his relatives and many friends congratulate him upon the securing of so charming a wife.

At the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Blalock last evening at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. T. C. Bradford pronounced the words which bound together in holy wedlock the lives of James Roy Borland and Miss Della Phillips. Only a few friends of the contracting couple were present to witness the ceremony which was at once solemn and impressive. The groom is the foreman of the New Enterprise, and since coming to our town about two years ago has made many friends. His bride is well known in our county and is esteemed by all who know her. The young couple have set up housekeeping in one of the Walker cottages where they have the best wishes and congratulations of their many friends.
